Teaching Science Communication through Wikipedia

3/24/16
90 Snell Library

Could your students contribute to Wikipedia? Curious about how that might work?

Come meet Jami Mathewson of the Wiki Education Foundation and fellow NU Wikipedia community members.

Participants will learn about Wiki Ed’s Year of Science initiative which offers instructors and students in all fields Wiki Ed-supported opportunities to work with the encyclopedia. They’ll also get oriented in Wikipedia with NU librarian and Wikipedia Campus Ambassador, Amanda Rust, and work through assignment designs with Cecelia Musselman of NU’s Writing Program.

12 – 2 pm
Bring a lunch and a laptop!
Coffee/tea and snacks provided

All Northeastern teaching faculty welcome!
